

WILSON DRAFTS
NOTE TO GERMANY

Document Will Be Submitted to Cabinet Today and Despatched Soon

COUNT TO SEND ENVOY

Personal Emissary Will Outline Situation to Emperor William and Government Officials

ARRANGES FOR SAFE CONDUCT

WASHINGTON, June 3.—President Wilson today drafted a note, brief and pointed to be sent to Germany asking a definite question—whether the imperial government intends to be guided in the future by the humane principles embodied in international law for the conduct of maritime warfare. It will be submitted to the cabinet tomorrow and despatched thereafter, before the week end.

Bernstorff to Send Emissary.

Coincidentally there will start for Berlin a personal emissary of Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, to lay before Emperor William and high officials of the German government the substance of what the ambassador learned from President Wilson in his talk yesterday that true state of public opinion in the United States toward the German government and the American point of view on submarine warfare.

The ambassador, in the interview with the president, it became known today, said he would send within a day or two a man of judgment and breadth to personally outline the situation to the German government.

The president made arrangements at Count Von Bernstorff's request for the safe conduct of the envoy. His name is not known generally but foreign governments already have given assurances to the United States that he will not be molested.

The ambassador is understood to have explained that he has had difficulty on account of the cable censorship in making his government realize the feeling in the United States and that erroneous reports had reached Germany.

Describes Wilson's Emphasis.

President Wilson's emphasis yesterday on the fact that the United States would not go to war or act to secure an acquiescence in its position in the Lusitania case was described by the ambassador in a memorandum which he has transmitted to his government.

Count Von Bernstorff saw Secretary Bryan for a few minutes today and is understood to have given him this memorandum to be delivered through Ambassador Gerard to the German foreign office. At the state department the ambassador also learned that arrangements had been made for the safe conduct of his spokesman.

The despatch of the ambassador's representative will not affect the sending of the American government's rejoinder to the last German note, though it may delay Germany's reply.

The transmission of a cable report on a conference such as occurred yesterday through the courtesy of a foreign government often makes it difficult to be pointed out in diplomatic quarters, for the recipient nation to give full weight to the language of the writer of the communication on the assumption that he does not speak as freely and frankly a might be the case if the messages were not read by the officials of another government. Ambassador Bernstorff's idea is to supplement the cable report with the personal words sent through an emissary of describing the situation accurately.

Ambassador is Hopeful.

The ambassador's plan has caused him to be very hopeful of the satisfactory outcome of the delicate situation that has arisen. Believing that his government was uninformed on the feeling in the United States when the last note was written in Berlin he is said to be confident that officials will now learn important details that will be of guidance in answering the American government's note.

Although the president naturally would not discuss his country's relations with the allies, the ambassador is said to have been convinced by his talk with Mr. Wilson of his sincerity of purpose in upholding the neutrality of the United States. The belief has often been freely expressed in German quarters that if the imperial government had been convinced that the United States would take an equally vigorous course in securing adherence by Great Britain to the international law with reference to shipments of conditional contraband and foodstuffs, a conciliatory reply would have been sent to the last American note. On the other hand, officials

DAVISON TESTIFIES
BEFORE COMMISSION

GIVES VIEWS ON REQUIREMENTS FOR DEVELOPING EXPORT TRADE

Says Increased Shipping Facilities are Fundamental Need and That Financing and Selling Would Follow in Sequence.

New York, June 3.—Henry P. Davison, a member of the banking firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., said today in testifying before the federal trade commission that he believed the fundamental requirement for developing the export trade of the United States to be increased shipping facilities.

The commission began its hearings here today to learn from business men their opinions regarding, among other things, the advisability of permitting combinations among American exporters for the extension of an export trade with foreign nations.

Mr. Davison said that with proper shipping facilities other things, such as financing and selling, would follow in sequence.

He continued: "Some form of combination of our business units must be organized if we are to do much in the foreign markets, with their keen competition. Combination would make it possible to cut down costs and effect concentration. The removal of competition between the units in foreign countries would make possible prices for the benefit of foreign stockholders."

"Would it be possible to stop the firms from doing in the local field what they would do in the foreign field if they were organized?" asked Chairman Davies.

"Yes," replied the witness. "The field would be different, the purpose would be different. I do not think there would be any difficulty in financing these undertakings if such combinations in foreign trade were permitted."

Roger Bobson, statistician gave it as his opinion that exporting combinations in this country would affect the domestic prices. The plan to divide the foreign territory for selling campaigns has been done by the Germans, Mr. Bobson said he believed would tend to fix prices.

FRENCH AVIATORS BOMBARD
HEADQUARTERS OF CROWN PRINCE

Twenty-Nine Machines Drop 178 Shells and Several Thousand Darts—Many Shells are Said to Have Reached Their Mark.

Paris, June 3.—The headquarters of the German crown prince were bombarded this morning by French aviators. Twenty-nine machines dropped 178 shells and several thousand darts. Many of the shells are said to have reached the mark.

This announcement was made in the official statement issued by the war office tonight. The text follows:

"Twenty-nine French aeroplanes between four and five o'clock this morning bombarded the headquarters of the Imperial Crown Prince. They dropped 178 shells, many of which reached the mark and several thousand darts.

"All the machines were subjected to a severe cannonade but they all returned unscathed.

"There is nothing else to report except new progress of our troops in the 'labyrinth' to the southeast of Neuville-St. Vaast."

ADVOCATE ESTABLISHMENT OF BANKS IN SOUTH AMERICA

GALESBURG, Ill., June 3.—John J. Arnold, vice president of the First National bank of Chicago and Charles R. McKay, deputy governor of the federal reserve bank in Chicago, addressing 400 bankers of Groups one and two of the Illinois bankers' association today advocated the immediate establishment of American banks in South America and the Orient to facilitate the extension of foreign trade.

R. E. Hieronymus, community adviser of the University of Illinois said now was America's opportunity to control the world's finances.

HAVE ALMOST INEXHAUSTIBLE
SUPPLY OF AMMUNITION

London, June 4.—The Morning Post's Petrograd correspondent comments on the fact that the Germans seem to have an almost inexhaustible supply of all the important ammunition. By this alone, he says, they were enabled to make a good stand against the Russians, whose tactical dispositions apparently were more advantageous.

GRANTS FURTHER REPRIEVE.

Springfield, Ill., June 3.—Governor Dunne today granted a further reprieve to Frank Repetto of Will county until Friday, July 16th, 1915. Repetto was sentenced by the circuit court of that county to be executed on December 18th, 1914, for the alleged murder of one Charles Masters.

conversant with the feeling in Berlin official quarters toward the United States are not sanguine that a satisfactory reply will be received because of the evidence that the admiralty and war staffs have been dominating the foreign office as not infrequently is the case with nations at war.

KILL "HOME RULE"
BILL AMENDMENT

Measure Is Restored to Form Which Makes It Applicable Only to Chicago

PASS GARDNER BILL

Would Make Immoral Women Subject to $200 Fine or One Year's Imprisonment or Both

PASS SMEJKAL MEASURE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 3.—Chicago legislators and city officials, working together in the interest of "home rule" of public utilities for that city, succeeded today in recalling the house "home rule" bill to second reading and voting on the amendment adopted last week which extended the home rule feature to every city, village and incorporated town in the state which adopted it upon referendum vote. The bill then was restored to third reading, in a form in which its supporters hope it may be passed by the senate.

Much of the day was spent by the house in the consideration of this measure. At the morning session an amendment was adopted specifically stating that the term public utility in the act should not be interpreted as applying to stock yards. In the afternoon Representative Perdunn secured a reconsideration of the vote by which this amendment was adopted and the amendment was tabled.

Pass Gardner Bill.—The Gardner bill making immoral women subject to a fine of $200 or imprisonment in the county jail for one year, or both, was passed by the house this afternoon.

The design of the bill is to assist immoral women afflicted with venereal diseases by placing it in the power of the courts to commit them to a sufficient length of time to bring about their cure. The idea is to place such offenders in the hands of probation officers for commitment to institutions in which they may receive treatment instead of assessing them a nominal fine and turning them loose.

The bill was attacked by Representatives Leo O'Neill Browne, Lyle Butler and Donahue.

It was defended by representatives G. H. Wilson, Burres and Devine.

After it had received more than the required constitutional majority sufficient members changed their vote to bring about the defeat of the bill providing for county uniformity in text books in the public schools.

The bill was drawn by a sub-committee of the house committee on education and eliminated Cook county from its provisions. It provided for a county text book commission of five including the county superintendent, who was empowered to name one other member, with three to be named by the county judge.

Will Move Re-consideration.—Later Representative Merritt gave notice that tomorrow he will move a re-consideration of the vote by which the bill was lost. The house passed the omnibus appropriation bill carrying the appropriations for state departments, boards, commissions, etc. Representative Lyle voted against its passage.

Smejkal bill carrying an appropriation of $3,171,236 to pay the salaries of state officers and members of the next general assembly also was passed.

COMMANDER OFFERS TO TAKE CREW ABOARD SUBMARINE

ENSENANCE, Eng., June 3.—(6:36 p. m.)—The captain of the Belgian trawler Delta B, sunk by a German submarine off the Scilly Islands yesterday, states that after the crew had taken to the boats the commander of the submarine offered to take them aboard stating he was unaware that their craft was Belgian.

The submarine attacked the trawler by shell fire. It was not until the trawler had been hit several times and damaged badly, a boy being injured, that the captain abandoned efforts to escape and surrendered.

BLOOMINGTON MAN CHOSEN HEAD OF ILLINOIS' WHOLESALE GROCERS

CHICAGO, June 3.—Campbell Holton of Bloomington was elected president of the Illinois Wholesale Grocers' Association at its annual meeting here today. Discussion of freight rates, credits and similar topics comprised the program of the meeting. Other officers elected are William M. Dart, Rock Island, first vice president; Albert Eisner, Champaign, second vice president; C. A. Rosemond, Bloomington, secretary; E. J. Hawk, Bloomington, treasurer.

War News Summarized

Coincidental with the fall of Przemyśl—the recapture from the Russians of the great Galician fortress by the Teutonic allies—the new British minister of munitions, David Lloyd-George, has begun his campaign for a vastly greater supply of war material for the British, French and Belgian soldiers in the western war zone.

Mr. Lloyd-George admitted that the Russians had suffered a severe setback and attributed the German triumph to the superior equipment of the German soldiers, an overwhelming superiority of shot and shell and all things necessary for carrying on a successful campaign. The retaking of Przemyśl, which is the result of a full month's desperate fighting over many miles of difficult country, is considered on all sides as one of the great achievements of the war.

If full credence is to be placed in the official statements issued of the campaign in the Galician region from day to day the casualty lists, including killed and wounded and prisoners, must run into the hundreds of thousands.

A spectacular incident of the war is to be found in a daring early morning raid by French aeroplanes over the headquarters of the German crown prince. Twenty-nine of these aircraft, the French war office states, dropped 178 shells and several thousand darts on this well guarded and unnamed section of France or Belgium and many of the shells are said to have been effective. That the Germans were on the alert to protect Prince Frederick William is apparent by the fact that the aeroplanes were subjected to a heavy gun fire. All of them however returned safely to their base.

The president of the United States has prepared a note in answer to the German reply to the American demands respecting the Lusitania and the German submarine warfare, which is first to be submitted to the cabinet and then despatched to Berlin probably before the end of the week.

Except for additional progress by the allied troops in the labyrinth near Nerville St. Vaast, Paris asserts that there is nothing new to report from the operations on the western front. Berlin, however, declares that the Germans have met with success against the British at Hooge, near Ypres and that fighting of a fierce nature is going on to the north of Arras and the forest of Lepretre.

In the east it is declared by the German war office that the Teutonic allies captured 12,175 men and sixty officers in the region of the town of Strzy.

COURT REFUSES PETITION TO DISSOLVE U.S. STEEL CORPORATION

Holds Concern Did Not Violate Sherman Anti-Trust Act and Refuses An Injunction Prayer for by Department of Justice.

Trenton, N. J., June 3.—The United States district court for New Jersey today handed down a unanimous decision refusing the petition of the Federal government to dissolve the United State Steel Corporation.

As against the government, the court refused to dissolve the corporation, holding that in acquiring its foreign and home trade the concern did not violate the Sherman Anti-Trust Act and refused all the injunctions prayed for by the department of justice.

As against the steel corporation, the court held that the co-meetings participated in by 95 per cent of the steel trade of the country, including the steel corporation, subsequent to the famous Gary dinners of eight or nine years ago were unlawful combinations to control prices; but as these meetings had stopped the government filed its complaint in October, 1911, the judges held that there was no occasion for an injunction.

The opinion of the court suggests that such practices lie within the province of the new federal trade commission, but adds that if their repetition is apprehended the court will, on motion of the government, retain jurisdiction of the case for that particular purpose.

A synopsis of the decision of the senior judge, Joseph J. Buffington, prepared by direction of the court states the key note of the entire opinion is that "this case, a proceeding under the Sherman anti-trust law, is largely one of business facts."

In another part of the opinion the court states that "real test of monopoly is not the size of that which is acquired but the trade power of that which is not acquired."

"If mere size were the test of monopoly and trade restraint," the court further on said, "we have not one but half a dozen unlawful monopolies in the large department stores of a single city."

Officials Gratified.

New York, June 3.—Chairman Elbert H. Gary and other officials and other directors of the United States Steel corporation made no effort to conceal their gratification at the outcome of the case. Judge Gary, however, made only brief comment on the decision, saying that he would have to weigh it from every angle before speaking at length.

MOVE TO RELIEVE HUNGER IN MEXICO

Order Consular Officers to Co-Operate in Moving Food Supplies

DEVOL TO GO TO TEXAS

General Manager of American Red Cross Will Supervise Movement of Supplies Into Mexico

CONFIRM GEN. VILLA'S CLAIMS

WASHINGTON, June 3.—While the government awaited today the effect of President Wilson's warning to contending military factions of Mexico, the American red cross, aided by the state and war departments, carried forward comprehensive plans to relieving hungry non-combatants in the famine threatened republic. Orders were telegraphed to consular officers along the border to co-operate in assembling and moving food supplies and similar instructions will be given the frontier military posts. Brigadier General Devol, general manager of the red cross, conferred with war department officials preparatory to leaving for Texas in the next day or two to supervise the movement of supplies into Mexico. The general telegraphed the American Railway association at New York asking that the railroads grant either free transportation or reduced rates for foodstuffs to border points.

To Organize Committees.—Meanwhile Miss Mabel T. Boardman, chairman of the relief committee, undertook arrangements to organize special committees in New York, Chicago, St. Louis and other cities to collect and forward supplies purchased or contributed. Tomorrow all of the plans will be placed before the red cross executive committee, which includes among its members Secretary Lane, Counselor Lansing of the state departments, Surgeon General Goetz of the army, Surgeon General Braisted of the navy and Solicitor General Davis.

Secretary Bryan announced during the day that the Brazilian minister at Mexico City was arranging for a train to carry 150 Americans to Vera Cruz, where they may embark for the United States. Mr. Bryan said other foreigners who wanted to leave the capital because of the food shortage would be taken on this train. He recalled that the standing advice of the state department to Americans in Mexico had been to leave the republic and added:

"We have helped all those Americans who wanted to come out and were too destitute to do so at their own expense. The only ones whom we have not helped have been those who have come out once and gone back in the face of the department's advice."

Receive Copies of Statement.

Messages from Consular Silliman at Vera Cruz and Consular Agent Carothers at Chihuahua told of the receipt of copies of President Wilson's statement announcing that unless the military factions themselves succeeded in composing their differences and restoring constitutional government the United States would be obliged to find other means of accomplishing this end.

It is supposed that Consul Silliman handed a copy to General Carranza today but Carothers may not be able to reach Villa immediately as the general is fighting with his troops against the Carranza army under Obregon in Central Mexico. A copy for Roque Gonzales Garza, provisional president of the Villa Zapata government in Mexico City, was sent to the Brazilian minister for delivery. It was learned today that copies of the statement had been sent to all American consular representatives in order that its purpose might be generally known to the Mexican people.

Await Reports with Interest.

Reports of how the statement was received not only by the factional leaders but by the public, will be awaited with keenest interest. There has been no indication of how long President Wilson expects to wait for a coalition of the contending elements before proceeding to the execution of the new policy by which he expects to restore peace and save Mexico's civilian population from further distress.

State department reports confirmed claims of a victory for Villa over Obregon at Silao, but few details were given. Upon the outcome of this battle, which has been in progress intermittently for weeks, depends supremacy in central Mexico and possibly the success of a final effort to bring the contending factions together to establish a new government.

ADMIRAL FISKE SPEAKS ON UNPREPAREDNESS

FORMER AIDE FOR OPERATIONS AD- DRESSES NAVAL ACADEMY ALUMNI

Tells of the Needs of the Navy and the Necessity of Making Laymen Realize Them—Considers Kind of Attack Navy Should Have to Guard Against.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 3.—Rear Admiral Fiske, who attracted widespread attention by his statement to the House Naval Committee on the lack of adequate naval equipment and who later retired from the office of aide for operations in the navy department, spoke at length on the unpreparedness of the fleet here tonight at the naval academy alumni dinner. Admiral Fiske spoke of the needs of the navy and the necessity of making laymen realize them and added:

"If we fear to do this, lest we incur displeasure and spoil our individual careers we are unworthy of the uniform we wear and we fail our country in her hour of need just as effectively as if we deserted her flag in war."

"With the example of the navy of the past to guide us, let us go where example beckons; seeing with whatever clearness God may grant us, the thing we ought to do; holding honor, patriotism and duty before us as the shining stars of our endeavor; loyal to the cause for which we live; to the end that we may worthily carry our flag upon the sea and securely guard our shores."

Considers Kind of Attack.

"Let us estimate the situation briefly and consider first what kind of an attack we should have to guard against. Evidently an attack of one of the great naval powers is the only kind we need consider. What would be the character of the attacking force? Clearly the attacking force would be as great as the attacking power could spare, in order to ensure its success and minimize its losses. This means that the attacking force would include battle cruisers, dreadnaughts, pre-dreadnaughts, scouts, cruisers, destroyers, submarines, mine depot ships, mine layers, mine sweepers, albatrosses and aeroplanes all fully manned and all strategically directed by a general staff. What would we with which to oppose this force?"

A smaller number of dreadnaughts, pre-dreadnaughts and destroyers than the enemy would bring, no battle cruisers, no effective scouts, one airship recently contracted for, only three good aeroplanes not yet ready, an embryonic aeronautical service, two mine depot ships, one mine layer and twelve mine sweepers also about 45 submarines of all kinds and ages, distributed over the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, Panama, Hawaii, and the Philippines, none of which have ever attempted feats like those so effectively performed in foreign navies now and an inadequate merchant marine from which to get auxiliaries. To man this inferior material we have forces only for times of peace.

"This means that, reasoning on the assumption that the United States desires that the navy shall be able to guard our coast effectively against the only kind of attack that would be made, the navy must contain several types of vessels and instruments that we do not now possess (or possess in only insufficient measure) must learn to use them both as units and as members of one great unit with a skill at least equal to that with which foreign navies already use them; must enlist and efficiently train as large a force of enlisted men, active and reserve, as our probable enemy would send; and must develop a general staff or some similar agency, as skillful and experienced as theirs."

Must Make Laymen Realize.

"We must make the layman realize that the naval profession has developed greatly within the last ten years in Europe, because of the imminence of the awful war for which her navies strenuously prepared, while we of the United States feeling secure behind the bulk of the ocean, have not seriously prepared and have therefore dropped behind in the march of naval progress and have been, in fact, outstripped."

AUSTRIO-GERMANS
CAPTURE PRZEMYSL

Achieve Main Object of Great Thrust They Commenced A Month Ago

NO ESTIMATE OF BOOTY

London Expects Victors Will Endeavor to Push on to Lemberg and Even Farther

SUBMARINE SINKS TRANSPORT

LONDON, June 3.—(9:50 p. m.)—With the capture of Przemyśl, which occurred at an early hour this morning, the Austro-German armies achieved the main object of the great thrust which they commenced against the Russian lines in western Galicia just a month ago today.

They have yet to drive the Russians farther back and establish themselves in easily-defended positions which will enable them to detach forces for operations against Italy and the allies in the west.

Win Great Victory.

Whether or not they accomplish this, the Teutonic allies have won a great victory and with a suddenness which overshadows all past operations of the war. It was only ten weeks ago that Przemyśl fell to the Russians after a six months' investment, which was interrupted for a short time in November by an Austrian advance.

With the surrender of the fortress there fell into the Russian hands according to official reports 130,000 Austrian prisoners and 600 guns and an immense amount of war material. Most of the forts however, had been completely destroyed by the Austrians before they surrendered and this is considered in military circles here to account for the fortress succumbing so quickly to the Austro-German attack.

When the Russians captured Przemyśl they were pressing the Austrians across the Carpathians. Then on May 23rd, came the news of a great Austro-German thrust into Galicia. Advancing slowly but surely and accompanied by a thousand guns the Teutons compelled the Russians to fall back until the Russian line ran to the right bank of the river San.

Crossing the river the Austro-German forces progressed to the north and south of the fortress and on Tuesday Berlin announced that three forts to the north had been stormed, while Vienna stated that the railway between Przemyśl and Lemberg was commanded by Austrian guns.

There was still hope in the allied countries, however, that a Russian counter offensive would hold the invaders off, but this proved ill founded and this morning the Russians had to give up the city which, earlier in the war, had cost them so dearly to win.

No Estimate of Booty.

Of what booty the Austro-Germans have captured with the fortress there is no estimate but it is fairly certain that the Russians, having lots of time, got away as many men and as much material as possible and destroyed the guns and ammunition that remained. It is not expected here that the victors will be satisfied with their gain of Przemyśl, but that they doubtless will endeavor to push on to Lemberg and even farther and put the Russians in such a position that they will not be able to resume the offensive for many months. The British government is urging workmen and employees to turn out shells in enormous quantities. David Lloyd George, the new minister of munitions, is touring the country with this object and the expectation is that the new British armies when they take the field will be equipped as no other forces ever were.

Meanwhile the French continue their operations north of Arras where it is declared they are slowly moving the Germans out of strongly fortified positions. The British on their part, have become more active in the regions of Ypres and Ieper, while the Italians continue to report the capture of important positions along their frontier. In this latter region, however, no news has yet been received of any big battle being fought.

Another British submarine has penetrated the Dardanelles and sunk a large German transport.

The report of the public librarian recently shows that during a year past 50,877 books were borrowed. This means an average of more than 4000 a month and indicates how important is the work of the library in this community. Miss Barrette as librarian successfully managing library affairs and patrons are treated with uniform courtesy, obliging and intelligent service. Library does more than lend books, more than furnish comfortable rooms for newspaper and magazine readers. It constantly becomes more and more a center of educational force and exerts a large influence on the life of the community.

The fact that Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador has arranged to send a special emissary to Berlin to deliver a personal report on the attitude of the U. S. government and the feeling of the people in general furnishes further proof that he greatly desires that Germany accede to the demands made. He has let it be known that cable troubles have interfered with his getting all the information desirable through to Berlin and has intimated his belief that Germany's reply would have been different if there had been a thorough understanding of his views and of conditions.

At the interview with President Wilson Thursday an arrangement was made for the safe convey of the ambassador's special envoy and U. S. government officials have taken on a much more hopeful view since this plan was announced. Count Von Bernstorff is certainly indicating that he has sized up feeling here correctly and further that he sees the wisdom of his country continuing on friendly terms with the U. S.

Equal Suffrage in Denmark.

While the European war has wrought so much evil to many countries the women of Denmark are claiming that along with all the evil has come some good. They concede that the war made possible the adoption of the new constitution which gives them equal suffrage. The new constitution which goes into effect today, grants equal suffrage to men and women, and ends the protracted controversy for reform. The previous constitution, adopted in 1866, after the disastrous war with Germany and Austria, was framed by the reactionaries who had come into power. This objectionable constitution superseded that of 1849 which was framed as a liberal foundation of government when Denmark passed from a despotism to popular rule.

The Danes are thanking the European war outbreak for their present good fortune. The giant conflict raging near at hand caused a cessation for the internal dissensions, but it was seen by the statesmen of the day that nothing short of a compromise reform would disrupt the country so bitter were the factions for and against. The unusual conditions thrust upon the country by the war amalgamated the feelings of both wings of the Danish political world to a point where compromise was easy and logical. The demand for reform was too broad for the conservatives to openly resist, so that the proposal for a gradual instead of immediate change was adopted.

Under the new constitution, which will be subscribed to by King Christian today electors must attain their sixth year to vote for candidates to the Landsting, or upper house. The age of 25 is necessary to vote for candidate for the Folketing, or lower house, which corresponds to the American house of representative. Under the former constitution, elective rights in the case of the lower house were granted at the 30th year, but as a concession to the conservatives the limit will be reduced a year at each election, which will insure a period of 16 years for the reduction to take place.

STREET CARS AND JITNEYS.

The finding of the state utility commission the jitney bus care was the occasion for a great deal of comment and conversation in Jacksonville Thursday, and in many quarters dissatisfaction was found with the ruling. The general feeling seemed to be that the course of conduct laid down by the board for operation of a jitney service will be equivalent to putting the jitneys out of business and that by this order a great many people will be deprived of the service which they have enjoyed.

The comment, too, in a number of instances was to the effect that the commission ruling was not in accordance with the generally recognized rights of citizenship or the common principle of business that competition is necessary and advisable. Most people believe that the jitneys should be regulated by local ordinance, but further than that they cannot see why a jitney service should be regulated out of existence because it interferes with the business of a street car company.

They argue that following the same line of reasoning that a great many private concerns might be put out of business. For example, they say that probably the lawyers would like to see to it that no additions to their ranks are made, and with the physicians it might be advisable to so rule that there could be no larger number become residents than are now serving the people. But it must be admitted that a utility company occupies a position largely different from that of a private concern. It is manifestly true that in a city of this size that a street car company and a jitney service cannot exist in an effort to furnish service on the same streets. There is not enough traffic to produce a profit for both of them.

In considering the commission ruling it must be taken into consideration, too, that the finding was not made simply with reference to the Jacksonville case or upon the facts presented by the local railway company or by the motor transportation company. The finding was made on a consideration of the facts in many Illinois cities and was intended as nearly as possible to fit into conditions in all cities.

The commission sometime since laid down the broad general proposition that a properly controlled monopoly is better for the average community in utility matters than is unrestricted competition, and this very fact is one of the basic principles of the utility commission act. The theory is for example that in a community where a telephone company is giving adequate service at a reasonable cost, that the interest of the people will not be conserved by allowing competing companies to open for business. On the old principle that competition is always advantageous it would appear upon the face of this proposition that the public would be benefitted by the operation of two or more telephone companies, but the commission's theory, is that the establishment of a competitive company in such an instance would simply mean that eventually the public would be required to pay more for service.

Very much of the intent of the commission act centers around this very principle, and the commission contends that in ruling out the jitney service where the public is already adequately served by a street car system, that in the end the people will be benefitted. They argue that it would be unreasonable to demand certain specific service from a street railway company and then make possible the establishment of a competitive service which will take away the custom from the street railway company upon which the service demanded from them must be built.

Further, it appears from the commission ruling that it is not at all impossible to prove to the board that the establishment of a jitney service will inure to the convenience of the public. In other words, where it is shown that a street car company does not properly care for the traffic and that the service is not adequate, a jitney line could even parallel the car line. In districts where a street car company has no lines and makes no pretense of furnishing service there could be no question as to the right of the jitneys to operate.

In the local case, for instance, a reading of the opinion would indicate that a jitney service could be operated on South Duane street, Hardin avenue and Lafayette avenue without being in conflict with the commission ruling. However, the ruling made is general in its application, and the establishment of a local service must be in accordance with the facts which can be shown as to the convenience and necessity.

While in accordance with the commission ruling and in accordance with the general principles of equity and justice the local street car company, because of its large investment here, is entitled to some degree of consideration, this does not mean that the present street car service is satisfactory or adequate for the people of Jacksonville. One car service is not satisfactory. At certain times of the day when only a very limited number of passengers are carried it is probably true that the public is not inconvenienced, but at other hours it is not possible for one man to collect fares, make change, issue transfers and operate the car in a speedy manner. There is also a distinct element of danger in connection with the one man system. Since the street car company has gone before the commission to put an end to the service which during the last few weeks has been a desirable supplement to street car facilities, there is all the more reason why the one man street car service should be abolished and the street car service improved. More people will ride on cars served by both motormen and conductors.

ANNUAL LIBRARY REPORT HAS BEEN COMPILED

Facts and Figures Indicate the Wide Scope of the Work and its General Importance.

Miss Lydia M. Barrette, public librarian has recently completed the annual report of the library and it gives in a concise way the facts which indicate how important is the library work in Jacksonville. Miss Barrette has proven very efficient in her work. Some of the data in the report follow:

Accessions.

There were added to the library during the year 1111 volumes. The withdrawals number 316. Of this number 6 were discarded on account of contamination, 17 were lost, 14 of these paid for by patrons and 100 were transferred from one class to another. The remaining 193 were worn out. The net gain for the year is 795. The volumes now in the library are 19,149.

Registration.

Nine hundred and thirty-one people who had not used the library before registered for cards during 1914-1915. The new borrowers last year were 826, showing a gain for this year of 105. Adult new cards, 624, juvenile 207. Of course the reregistration was also much heavier, as we cancelled cards for two years 1909 and 1910 during the summer. The reregistrations numbered 549 adult, 51 children. Thirty-five cards were cancelled during the year through removal from town of patrons. Regular cards now in force 5124.

The most interesting thing in registration is the record kept since last August of people who took cards by occupation. Although we have not the figures for the entire year, the per cents for eight months were made up to get some idea of the kind of readers as indicated by their vocations. The results show students 34 per cent. It must be remembered in considering this figure that it is undoubtedly higher than it would be for the entire year, because the part of the year under consideration is the part for which students would naturally register, and in the remaining four months practically no students would ask for cards, while the other classes would gain. Housekeepers registered 27 per cent of the whole number, professional 15 per cent, business 9 per cent, leisure 8 per cent, mechanics 2 per cent, agriculture 1 and 1-2 per cent, laborers 2 and 1-2 per cent, domestic service 1 per cent. Out of town registrations were heavy during the year. As will be seen by the librarians dash accounts, $23.25 was paid into the library in memberships. $5.00 of this was taken in in yearly subscriptions at $1 a year and 73 cards were issued for three month periods. Fourteen of these went to the Maple Grove school.

Extension Work.

Although Maple Grove is outside the city limits, by paying for a number of cards, books were sent out as to a branch and circulated and recirculated in the neighborhood. The figures for circulation are not in this report.

In November the library sent a case of about a hundred books to the grocery store on the corner of Clay and Morton avenues. Miss Aushury goes to this station once a week on Friday afternoons and distributes books and information about the library from 4 to 6 and from 8:30 to 8 o'clock. The average circulation has been 38 books a day. The largest daily circulation was 60 and the smallest on the day of opening, 16.

The checking of the borrower's register with the city directory in the summer showed that fewer people had library cards and fewer books were loaned in certain parts of town than in others, owing largely to distance which is a disadvantage in borrowing. Believing that it is necessary to have books easily accessible in order to get the best use of them, the station was established.

Circulation.

During the first few months of the year there was a decrease in circulation in comparison with corresponding months the year before. Later this was more than made up and we have a large increase for the year. 8504 more books sent out for home use than in 1913-1914; 2516 gain in the children's room and 5983 in adult department. The opening of the little branch library on Clay and Morton avenues, has increased the circulation and registration in that part of town.

All classes of reading show the increase but the most marked gains are in history and useful arts. History has more than doubled and practical books show nearly as large a gain. Three times as many current magazines have gone out as last year and they have been largely numbers of Outlook, Independent, World's Work and Literary Digest. The stirring times, war news, and the Mexican situation have stimulated interest in current events and history. The result shows in library circulation statistics.

Circulation by months shows totals as follows:
Juvenile 13,898; adult 36,979; total, 50,877.

Gifts and Courtesies.
Among the donors of books were Miss Mary Rhoads, Mrs. E. P. Kirby, Mr. G. S. Bosworth, Carroll M. Drew, Mr. E. O. Mayer, Sec. of the Typographical Union, Mr. J. M. Pinkston, Mr. W. J. Clough, Miss Lota Meade and the local chapter of the D. A. R.

One of the most appreciated gifts during the year were subscriptions to magazines by various clubs. The Women's club subscribed for the General Federation Club magazine and the Illinois Club Bulletin. Fortnightly club subscribed to American Forestry, and Passavant Hospital Alumni Association to American Journal of Nursing. A number of people have sent copies of old magazines to the library, and these are a welcome addition to circulation and to add to the clipping file and picture collection.

Gifts of flowers from Hoffman's were appreciated, and many library patrons brought in garden flowers in season which were much enjoyed. Mrs. G. B. Andre, Mrs. W. W. Seal and Mr. Charles Catlin loaned ferns during the winter.

The newspapers have published many lists and notes directed toward the advancement of the library and making its resources known to the people to whom it belongs.

Inter-Library Loans.

Books have been borrowed from patrons from the Illinois Library Commission, Illinois State Library, Quincy public library, Davenport public library and the St. Louis public library. The St. Louis public library has extended us many courtesies and they have been so generous in loaning us books. Twice they loaned us volumes for a short time from their reference collection. We have loaned books to three libraries near us.

ALTON TRAIN GOES IN DITCH NEAR MINIER

No. 70 Leaves Rails, Tearing up
Track, but Passengers Escape with Few Injuries—Miss Sangster not Hurt.

In connection with the Alton wreck near Minier Thursday came a report that Miss Lucy Sangster, who has been head trimmer for F. J. Waddell and company was seriously injured. A message from Miss Sangster brought the information that she was not injured. The following despatch tells of the accident:

Minier, Ill., June 3.—Eleven persons were injured and a train load of passengers badly shaken up when Chicago & Alton passenger train No. 70, enroute from Roodhouse to Bloomington, went into the ditch a mile west of Minier, at 10:15 this morning. The tender of the engine left the track then turned over, pulling with it the baggage car, smoking car and day coach. No one was seriously injured but there were numerous miraculous escapes from death.

The following were among the injured:

A. T. Ives, Bloomington, mail clerk, back injured.

E. E. Vasconcellos, Bloomington, baggage man, slight bruised.

S. H. Johnson, Minier, thigh injured.

J. D. Bloom, Macomb, neck and shoulder injured.

Mrs. Thomas Boyd, (address not given), arm bruised.

Ruby Elder, Mason City, finger mangled.

Chas. Pillars, St. Louis, Mo., spine injured.

Mrs. Housch, Carroll, Iowa bruised and scratched.

Mrs. William Bailey, Delavan, back injured.

Vernon Bailey, Delavan, leg injured.

Fred Smith, Hopedale, tips and ankles hurt.

The train was running about forty miles an hour and was fifteen minutes late. The accident occurred on a straight stretch of track and the tender left the rails simply from an unknown cause. The shock was so sudden that the passengers did not know what had happened until the cars had completely overturned and had landed down an eight-foot embankment.

Looked Bad at First.

Excited cries of the uninjured and the groans from some of those most severely hurt and the terrible appearance of wreckage gave it the appearance of one of the worst wrecks the company ever had. The hand of good fortune was with the passengers and members of the crew, however, for none of those in the above list are seriously or fatally injured.

The train was in charge of Engineer McLaffin and Conductor Grady, both of Bloomington. As soon as the tender left the track McLaffin applied the brakes but the train did not stop until 300 feet of the track had been torn up by the bouncing tender and coaches and they had all toppled over into the slight embankment. A deeper embankment would of course have made the accident more serious.

WELCOME HOME PARTY.

Shortly after dark Tuesday evening the home and premises of "Uncle Johnnie Brainer" about three miles west of Arcadia, presented a scene most unique and pleasing in character, it being the occasion of the home-coming of Mr. Oscar Brainer and his bride (nee Miss Laura Bridgman). They had just returned from a brief wedding trip through the east.

As darkness came numerous groups began to gather at convenient corners and nooks. After being assured all was well at the house, a large crowd of ladies, followed by a much larger crowd of gentlemen, advanced to the front of the house singing:

"Mid pleasures and palaces."

"Tho' we may roam,

Be it ever so humble,

There's no place like home," etc.

Receiving no response from within the singing continued. Pausing from time to time and still receiving no response the crowd then gave their own applause by the beating of drums, ringing of bells, blowing tin horns, and various other means. This finally brought to the porch the smiling couple who threw open the doors and cordially invited to enter all who could do so.

For about thirty minutes the bride and groom stood at the door and received the heartfelt congratulations of about 200 of their friends. The spacious rooms were soon filled and still the throng continued to move through the house and out onto the pleasant lawn.

Suspecting some of his friends might call during the evening, the groom had on hand a box of cigars, but realizing these "wouldn't go half way around" his fears began to arise until he learned that under the management of his brother, Earl, and Mrs. Hattie Farmer, his friends had hidden away in the basement a supply of ice cream and cakes sufficient for all the self-invited guests.

It is needless to say all did justice to their generous hospitality, and departed at a late hour wishing Mr. and Mrs. Brainer a long, happy and useful life together.

Friend.

REPORT IS PREMATURE.

Hamburg, June 3.—via London, June 4.—Albert Ballin, director general of the Hamburg-American steamship line, commenting on the announcement by the London Daily Mail and the Paris Matin, that he had been removed to a neurological institute at Frankfurt-on-the-Maine, said today: "The report is at least premature."

JEFFRIES BAND GAVE CONCERT PROGRAM THURSDAY NIGHT

Program Was Enjoyed by Vast Throng—Contributions for Concert
Fund.

The complimentary concert given by Jeffries Band in Central park Thursday evening was heard by a large number of citizens. The program was an excellent one and the band was in splendid form.

On June 14th, which is flag day, it is expected that the new boulevard lights will be turned on for the first time. The band has generously offered to give another complimentary concert on that occasion. The crowd out at the concert Thursday evening demonstrates that Jacksonville people enjoy band music and there is every reason to believe that they will respond with contributions enough to assure the proposed summer concerts.

As stated before in the Journal the plan is to have a night concert once a week in Central park and a Sunday afternoon concert in either Duncan or Nichols park. Contributions have been coming in slowly. It is to be hoped that with the concert of Thursday evening in mind the funds will come in more rapidly. To the contributions already published have been added one from J. H. Cain & Sons of five dollars and one from G. A. Meubthausen for two dollars. The total amount subscribed to date is as follows:

Jacksonville Railway & Light company, $50.00.
Elks Lodge No. 682, $25.00.
T. P. A., $25.00.
U. C. T., $15.00.
Mrs. Frank Trefzger, $1.00.
Jenkinson-Bode Co., $5.00.
Myers Bros., $5.00.
J. H. Cain & Sons, $5.00.
G. A. Meubthausen, $2.00.
Total to date, $132.00.
10 per cent added by band, $13.20.
Grand total, $145.20.

WOMAN COULD NOT SIT UP

Now Does Her Own Work.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

Ironton, Ohio.—"I am enjoying better health now than I have for twelve years. When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could not sit up. I had female troubles and was very nervous. I used the remedies a year and I can do my work and for the last eight months I have worked for other women, too. I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough for I know I never would have been as well if I had not taken it and I recommend it to suffering women."

Daughter Helped Also.
"I gave it to my daughter when she was thirteen years old. She was in school and was a nervous wreck, and could not sleep nights. Now she looks so healthy that even the doctor speaks of it. You can publish this letter if you like."—Mrs. RENA BOWMAN, 161 S. 10th Street, Ironton, Ohio.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out and drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

WHEN YOU WASH YOUR HAIR DON'T USE SOAP

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain mulsumed coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Many People In This Town never really enjoyed a meal until we advised them to take a Rexall Dyspepsia Tablet. Before and after each meal. Sold only by us—25c a box.

BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT IS REPORTED BY AGENTS

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD ISSUES MONTHLY BULLETIN.

Demand for War Supplies is Keeping Many Industries Busy—Boston Report Says Feeling of Optimism Prevails.

Washington, June 3.—General business and banking conditions throughout the country as observed by the federal reserve agents of the twelve regional banks are set forth in the monthly bulletin of the federal reserve board issued today. Improvement was reported by most of the agents, while others noted that the demand from Europe for war supplies was keeping many industries busy.

"There is a feeling of optimism in all lines of business in this district," said the Boston report, "that a slight improvement in most lines with the possible exception of the shoe and leather trade. Foreign government orders are reported to be coming into this market almost daily and trades directly influential are doing a good business."

The New York agent reported a reduction of unemployment and said:

"Throughout New York state farmers, fruit growers and dairy men anticipate a good season. Factories producing goods for domestic use are not busy and new orders come in slowly. The manufacture of war supplies continues above capacity and is extending to plants normally otherwise engaged, thus partly offsetting slack domestic trade."

The Philadelphia agent reported that war orders and their influences were helping many industries.

"Improvement of conditions in District No. 4," said the Cleveland report, as reported in April, is being held but no additional advance is noted. While our advances seem to indicate no recession in business there is a slight pause with fewer orders for new business."

The Richmond agent reported "very little change in general business conditions during May."

Atlanta reported conditions "generally good."

Chicago also reported improvement in general conditions.

"Trade development in May has been favorable," said the agent.

"Moderate improvement is noticed in the leading industries especially iron and steel and the metal working branches and at more satisfactory prices. The continuation of the serious labor troubles in the building trades at Chicago is a depressing factor there. Movements of crude materials and finished products of factories show steady gain. The outlook for manufacturers as a whole is regarded as improved."

"General business conditions in this district," reported the St. Louis agent, especially in the larger cities and manufacturing sections while still below normal, indicate a continued though slow improvement. The manufacturing industries except those affected by war orders show less improvement than the general jobbing interests."

Satisfactory agricultural conditions in the northwest were reported by the Minneapolis agent.

Purely financial conditions in the tenth district were reported as excellent by the Kansas City agent.

"The retail and wholesale trade is not quite up to normal," he said, "however, collections are slightly better than normal, except such slight lulls as depend upon wages." A lighter demand for money was reported by the Dallas, Texas agent. San Francisco reported a "general feeling of mild optimism."

ATTENTION VOTERS.

The judicial election will be held on Monday, June 7, 1915, to elect three judges for the 7th Judicial Circuit. The present Judges are Judge James A. Creighton, of Springfield, Judge Norman L. Jones of Carrollton and Judge Frank H. Burton of Carrollville.

They are all candidates for re-election. The fact that there are no opposing candidates should not be regarded as relieving any voter from attending this election. These candidates are all able, judicial officers and deserve a vote of confidence even if it is not deemed necessary to insure their election.

Democratic voters are especially urged to go to the polls and vote for these candidates, for the reason that they are responsible for their nomination and have vouched for them. All public-spirited citizens should be interested in seeing that Morgan county gives to these men a substantial vote, that in so doing express their confidence in them.

Haller Higgins, Chairman of the Democratic Central Committee of Morgan County.

SWIM OR LOSE DIPLOMA IS PRINCETON RULE

Princeton, N. J., June 3.—Splashing around in the gymnasium tank at Princeton university a group of seniors are making a last effort to learn to swim. Their diplomas are at stake, and the impending calamity of forfeiting their sheepskins has given them an impetus to try to remove the lead from their heels. Swimming is a hard task for some men who have always dreaded the water. While their classmates cheer them on, they are floundering about, buoyed up by hope more than knowledge of the use of their arms and legs. The regulation, no swim no diploma, will be strictly enforced this year, the test being to swim 200 yards and show the mastery of the back stroke and one other recognized stroke.

MAKE REPEATED EFFORTS TO DISLODGE ITALIANS

SUCCEEDED IN ESTABLISHING THEMSELVES ON MONTENEGRO RIDGE.

Advance Across the Isonzo is Accomplished in the Face of Unusual Difficulties—Heavy Rains Make it Impossible to Ford River.

Udine, Italy, June 3.—Via Paris, (3:50 p. m.)—Austrian troops have made repeated efforts to dislodge the Italian forces which have succeeded in establishing themselves on Montenero ridge, across the Isonzo river, along the front north of the Gulf of Trieste. According to advances reaching Udine today the Italians are still in possession of the ridge. The advance of the Italians across the Isonzo has been accomplished in the face of unusual difficulties. In consequence of heavy rains it was impossible to ford Isonzo, except for detachments of cavalry whose horses swam across the river. Engineers protected by artillery constructed pontoon bridges for the infantry.

Once the troops had reached the further bank of the river still greater difficulties were encountered: The rain had transformed the mountain paths into beds of swift running streams. Water pouring down the mountain sides uprooted trees and obstructed progress at every turn. The few mountain bridges left by the Austrians were carried away by the floods. Rest for the troops was impossible, as the rocky mountain sides were too exposed, while the valleys, knee deep in water were unsuitable for camping places.

Thick fog hung over the whole region making it impossible to see for any distance.

Progress was slow but the invaders made their way up the mountainside taking with them heavy artillery, ammunition and transports with supplies. They occupied Drezanica, Cosce, Karreit and other smaller villages below Montenero and finally obtained possession of the ridge. Regular communication with the base on the right bank of the Isonzo has been maintained including a telephone line over which the commander at Caporetto has been immediately informed of each attack by the Austrians in their efforts to dislodge the Italians.

Montenero dominates the whole Friuli valley. Possession of this ridge enables the Italians to menace Tolmino from the rear. This town, together with the batteries recently constructed on Santa Maria and Santa Lucia Hills, presents one of the most formidable obstacles to an Italian advance across the Isonzo at that point.

Montenero also commands the valleys leading to the northeastern part of the Isonzo-Piave district, having on its north Predil pass which, strongly fortified, protects the road to Tarvis.

The Italian occupation of this ridge is thus connected with the action which from the Raccolana and Dogna valleys threatens the Seebach valley leading to Predil.

GREAT TROTTING SEASON FOR FISCUS FAIR.

San Francisco, June 3.—Many of the stars of the trotting world are stabled at the Fair for the first of the two big harness meetings, which will open on Saturday. As a sporting event, the races at the fair will establish new records. A program offering a total in stakes of $227,000 is not often heard of, and in harness racing it is a precedent. The new track is acknowledged to be one of the finest courses in America. The grandstand seats 5,000, and is at the western end of the exposition grounds. The first meet closes on June 19, and the fall meet is scheduled from October 30 to November 13.

How many ringing songs there are that celebrate the wine, and other goods behind the bar, as being wondrous fine! How many choruses exalt the brown October ale, which puts a fellow's wits at fault, and lands him in the jail! A hundred poets wasted ink, and ruined good quill pens, describing all the joys of drink in gilded boozing keens. But all those joys are hollow fakes which wisdom can't endorse; they're soon converted into aches and sorrow and remorse. The man who drains the brimming glass in haunts of light and song, next morning knows that he's an ass, with ears twelve inches long. An aching head, a pile of debts, a taste that's green and stale, that's what the merry fellow gets from brown October ale. Untimely graves and weeping wives and orphans shedding brine; this sort of thing the world derives from bright and sparkling wine. The prison cell, the scaffold near; such features may be blamed on wholesome keg and bottled beer, which made one city famed. Oh, sing of mud or axle grease, but chant no fairy tale, of that disturber of the peace, the brown October ale!

Untimely graves and weeping wives and orphans shedding brine; this sort of thing the world derives from bright and sparkling wine. The prison cell, the scaffold near; such features may be blamed on wholesome keg and bottled beer, which made one city famed. Oh, sing of mud or axle grease, but chant no fairy tale, of that disturber of the peace, the brown October ale!

GIANTS POUND BRAVE TWIRLERS AND WIN

MARQUARD IS HIT FREELY BUT TIGHTENS IN PINCHES

Maranville is Removed From the Game by Umpire Quigley in the Third When He Protested Against a Decision.

Boston, June 3.—The delivery of three Boston pitchers contained few mysteries for New York batsmen, and the Giants won. The Braves battered Marquard hard but he tightened in the pinches. Maranville was removed from the game by Umpire Quigley in the third when he protested vehemently against a decision.

TRAINS CHANGE TIME

The new Washburn time table which has recently gone into effect shows no changes in the leaving time of Jacksonville trains except that the train which previously left at 1:50 p. m. for the west now goes at 2:00 p. m. and the 2:15 a. m. train east has been changed to 1:53. It should be mentioned however, that the train going west at 5:15 does not connect with any trains for Merced or towns on that branch from Bluff. The service is taken care of by the train now leaving at 1:50.

FRED STEWART
First Base.

Fred Stewart who will play first base for Illinois in the game with Normal Saturday is one of the most popular men wearing the blue and white. Stewart formerly played the outfield and was a member of the Eagle team last summer, playing center field. Owing to Atchison going on the rubber Coach Harmon has been playing Stewart at first. He has developed into a good first baseman and plays the sack as though he had been there all his life.

Miss Ernestine Luttrell who has been occupied at the Woman's College has returned to her home in Eldorado for the vacation.

"MORNING GLANCES" (By Gosh)

James, Tyler and Crutcher yielded sixteen hits to the Giants yesterday and New York defeated the Braves.

Pittsburgh and Kansas City in the Federal league were tied for first place Wednesday. Yesterday Pittsburgh untied it by winning 2 to 1.

Indianapolis and Minneapolis in the American Association went thirteen innings Thursday, former winning 3 to 4.

At New York and Philadelphia Thursday the American league games were stopped by cold weather. That sounds funny for the first week in June.

Maranville was chased yesterday by Umpire Quigley. If President Tener suspends him it will further cripple the champions who are not going any too well anyway.

Weather permitting Illinois college will play Normal Saturday on Illinois field. With Fanning pitching Illinois should win if they play ball behind him.

Not a team in Central Association reached double figures in the run making in Thursday's games. Waterloo with nine counts was the nearest.

Freeman will be on the mound for the Eagles Sunday. Freeman looked like a pitcher the two innings he worked two weeks ago. Many of the fans are anxious to see him go the full route.

Brooklyn beat Buffalo two games Thursday. In the first game Buffalo used four pitchers but could not stop Brooklyn. In the second game Bedient, the former Red Sox twirler went the full route but was beaten 3 to 1.

Barnes of Davenport held Decatur to three hits yesterday. After trailing for seven innings Moline got to Richmond and put two runs across the platter winning 3 to 2.

Buck Weaver of the White Sox has been suspended indefinitely by President Johnson for his run in with Umpire Hilderbrand in the Detroit game Monday. It is probable that he will be back in a few days. However, the Sox did not miss Muck as "Leta" Blackburn filled his shoes acceptably.

Ralph Craig is playing with Peoria in the Three-Eye. Craig was with Danville in the Kitty league and came here the following season when Jacksonville joined the old Iowa league. He could get down to first as fast as Cobb or any other man that ever played ball. While with Jacksonville he performed the feat of beating out a hit to Bennett of Quincy when the latter paused to wind up before throwing to first.

MILLIONAIRES NOW TRAVEL UNDER OLD GLORY

New York, June 3.—The strong demands of wealthy Americans who are going abroad have led to the re-establishment of first class service on the American line, and when the liner Philadelphia sails today, it will carry passengers first class. The wealthy travelers to Europe have suddenly become patriotic and wish to sail under the Stars and Stripes. For the past two years, the American line steamers have carried only second and third class passengers.

Louisville, Ky., June 3.—For the first time in the history of the institution, the law, medical and arts and sciences departments of the University of Louisville joined together at commencement today. The formal exercises will be held this evening. Dr. Charles W. Dabney of the University of Cincinnati being commencement orator. The enrollment of students this year was 597.

POSSE CAPTURES TWO BANDITS AFTER DAY'S RUNNING FIGHT

ERIE, Pa., June 2.—After a running fight which lasted practically all day, with a posse composed of more than a hundred men, two men who shot perhaps fatally wounded Richard Mack, a wealthy farmer near Waterford were captured late today in a wood eight miles from the scene of the crime. They gave their names as Earl Mack, said to be a nephew of the wounded man, and Emory Eaton, both of Sherman N. Y. The men were captured by Francis Duncombe, a member of the posse, who found them hiding under a log. Mack was shot and robbed while going from his house to the barn.

COL. FRANK L. SMITH IS OUT FOR GOVERNOR

DWIGHT MAN IS ACTIVE.

Something of Candidate From Seventeenth Congressional District Who Aspires to High Office.

(Bloomington Pantagraph.)
Illinois will elect a governor in 1916. At this early date there are many rumors of prospective candidates, particularly on the part of the Republicans, but the first to formally announce has been Col. Frank L. Smith, of Dwight, Livingston county, and the seventeenth congressional district. When a man becomes a candidate for a high office such as the governorship there is a natural desire on the part of the voters to learn everything possible about the aspirant who may preside over the destinies of the state. For the purpose of securing such information in reference to Col. Smith, a representative of the Pantagraph visited Dwight recently.

A Native of Dwight.

Mr. Smith was born in Dwight, Nov. 24th, 1867, and passed his younger days there, graduating from the high school in 1885. His energy and determination to do things was displayed early in life and he was willing to work at anything for an honest living. He was for some time engaged in construction work for the Postal Telegraph lines, where he made good and was not afraid to do his share of manual labor. He was then clerk and bookkeeper, did his work well, and was at one time in the employ of the Chicago & Alton railroad company.

Returns to Dwight.

He later went to Chicago where he followed railroad work for several years, but all the while was thinking of other and greater things. He returned to Dwight in 1891 and went into the real estate business on a capital of $125. His success is a wonderful story. He made good from the start and established a record that has seldom if ever been equalled in a small town. As a proof that his success has been made through only most honorable means his best friends are those with whom he has had numerous business dealings. A rich farmer near Odell told the writer: "I well remember having a deal with Frank when he first went into business. He carried it through in a manner that convinced me that he was the brightest young fellow I had ever met. I hear he is a candidate for governor. I am for him for anything and the Republicans couldn't find a better man."

Father a Blacksmith.

The people of Dwight speak well, not only of Col. Smith, but of his parents as well. The father, Jacob Smith, who died at the age of 56, was born in Germany of that sturdy stock, so well known for their splendid manhood, who came to this country in an early day. He was "the village blacksmith" of Dwight. The mother, Miss Jane Ketcham, before her marriage, died at the age of 37. She was a woman full of

ELECTROCUTE VIRGINIA

Richmond, Va., June 3.—Tom Coles, a negro, sentenced to death for an attack on a white girl, will be electrocuted here tomorrow. He was shot three times by the posse which captured him at Buffalo Springs. He reached here May 1, under heavy military guard to prevent any attempt at lynching.

ASBURY.

The congregation decided to have no preaching service Sunday afternoon but to come in to the 3 p. m. meeting at Brooklyn which will be addressed by Dr. Elgar Blake, General secretary of the Sunday school of the Methodist Episcopal church. There will be Sunday school at Asbury.

FOUNDER OF BANK.

Col. Smith's business has rapidly grown and developed until today it extends into many states and is one of the most complete of its kind in the United States. In the year 1905 the First National Bank of Dwight received a charter and was opened for business. Mr. Smith was the leading spirit in its organization and was elected its president. Like everything else along business lines that Col. Smith has undertaken, the bank has been remarkably successful.

Many Activities.

Col. Smith has accumulated a comfortable fortune, of which he is the founder, and possesses a beautiful home, presided over by his charming wife. Mr. and Mrs. Smith graduated in the same class in high school and were married Feb. 8, 1893. They are both liberal, public-spirited, and stand for the best things in the community. There is nothing suggested for the benefit of Dwight that the Smiths are not in it with a will.

Col. Smith is a member of the Masons, Modern Woodman, Knights of Pythias and Elks. The men of Mr. Smith's age in Dwight say he was an expert baseball player in his day and that he is a thirty-third degree fan right now. Col. and Mrs. Smith have made several trips abroad and one around the world. Both are close observers and on their return from the last trip in 1912, Mr. Smith predicted that a great foreign war would soon take place.

Always a Republican.

Col. Smith has always been a Republican and has stood by the party and its friends. The following remark has been frequently heard: "I like Frank L. Smith because you always know where to find him. He is loyal to his friends and to his party". He has been active in politics for over twenty years, has been a valuable member of the state central committee for a long period and for some time was United States collector of internal revenue at Springfield.

High Qualifications.

Anyone who will take the trouble to investigate for himself will find that Col. Frank L. Smith is a man of the highest character, square and honorable in all his dealings; that he acts on the principle of a square deal for everybody in business and politics; that he has high ideals and will not be swayed from the right. Upon his window for twenty years has appeared the sign: "If You Deal With Me You Get Results". That he does "get results" for his customers they themselves are first to testify and those who are at all acquainted with Col. Smith recognize that if the voters of Illinois deal favorably with him that as governor he will make even a greater success than he has as a private citizen.

PEORIA WOMAN TELLS EXPERIENCE

Mrs. W. L. McClellan, of Peoria, suffered torture from indigestion, gas, belching and other symptoms of stomach trouble. She spent large sums of money for doctors' advice and medicine. Still her condition did not improve. She found relief, wonderful, surprising relief in a drug store window. This is her story, as she tells it. "I suffered so from distention and colicky pains that at times I was completely incapacitated for my household work. I saw a window display of May's Wonderful Remedy and decided to purchase a bottle, which I did. I have taken only one bottle and the results have been really wonderful. I have not had a pain in my stomach since, and let me say that for the first time in many, many months, two days following I have had a natural movement of the bowels. I feel I cannot say enough for the remarkable virtues of your remedy."

May's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

“Me for ‘GETS-IT’ When I Have Corns”

Simple As Saying It; Never Fails.

It does your heart good to see how easily and quickly any corn comes out when you put “GETS-IT” on it. And then when you’ve gone along for years trying everything, when you’ve sat up nights wrapping up your toes in bandages, smearing on salves that rub off or swell up the corn, pasting on cotton plasters that make corns pop-eyed, slaughtering your toes with razors, jabbing them with knives and prunning to the quick with scissors—and then you put on 2 drops of “GETS-IT” and see your corn fall right off—why, it just looks like a miracle. Just try it. “GETS-IT” never fails. No pain, no trouble. Use it for any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

“GETS-IT” is sold by druggists everywhere, 25¢ a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Jacksonville and recommended as the world’s best corn cure—by Armstrong’s Drug Store—J. A. Obermeyer.

MOVIE BUSINESS HAS HAD MARVELOUS GROWTH

Development Has All Come Within a Few Years—The Story of Jacksonville Movie Theaters.

When you go to a movie theatre and see a show you seldom give a thought to the magnitude of the business and how it has grown in the last decade. The movie business has been ridiculed much in the past and is being still ridiculed. The vaudeville stage songsters tell of the perilous exploits of “Poor Pauline.” The talking comedians take their shots at it. But when you stop to think of the millions of dollars that are invested in the film firms and the theaters where they are shown, it begins to dawn on you that it means something. In California recently they established a city where the population is made up of the actors who take part in the scenes that make films for your amusement.

But this story is going to deal with the movie business from a local standpoint. The movie business is not old in Jacksonville. Back about 1895 a melo-drama came through Jacksonville. At that time the moving pictures had just been invented. This company carried a machine and showed some street scenes. It was a side issue but it made the hit of the evening. These pictures were very crude in comparison with those shown in the local houses at the present time. It required a direct current to operate them and the flickering nearly destroyed one’s eyesight.

The first real pictures to be produced in the Grand were those of the Corbet-Fitzsimmons prize fight which had taken place at Carson City, Nevada, in March 1897. These pictures were shown for three nights during the county fair in 1897. The following winter several small shows came through which had picture machines and they met with more or less favor.

T. S. Scott, proprietor of Scotts theatre and the Hippodrome was the pioneer picture man in Jacksonville. Over fourteen years ago Mr. Scott started in the picture business. He did not establish a theatre in Jacksonville but in conjunction with T. W. Allen he visited small towns adjacent to Jacksonville and also made some of the carnivals.

About nine years ago Mr. Scott established the first movie in Jacksonville. His first location was in Conservatory hall where he remained for about six weeks. He then secured the room now occupied by J. D. Benson’s lunch room. He made a theatre out of this. For several years he plodded along quietly and few people took the thing seriously. Mr. Scott, however, had looked into the future and before long others began to realize the possibilities of the movie game. Mr. Scott remained on the north side of the square for several years and then leased the building now occupied by the Hopper shoe store. From there he moved to his present location and has since built the Hippodrome.

G. M. Luttrell, owner of the Majestic theatre on East State street, has been in the movie game for five years. Prior to embarking in that he was for five years manager of the Grand Opera House and was considered one of the most successful managers that house has ever had.

In talking with a reporter for the Journal Thursday Mr. Luttrell said that his first year as manager of the Majestic was not very encouraging. He stuck to his guns, however, and today has one of the best and most profitable movie houses in the middle west.

The movie business at the Grand is comparatively a new thing. L. P. Anderson was the first manager of that theatre to inaugurate the movie game. It proved so successful that the managers who succeeded him have followed in his footsteps.

Harold J. Johnson, present manager of the Grand makes a specialty of moving pictures and vaudeville. He talked optimistically of the future of the movie business. Mr. Johnson has only been managing the Grand for a little over a year but he has made good on the job and his house is one of the most popular in the city.

So we have at the present time three first class movie theatres in Jacksonville which are open twelve months in the year. The Hippodrome is open during the summer months or possibly seven months. All of these regular theatres give at least four shows each day and some of them give six.

These shows appeal both to old and young. It is especially to the young that they appeal. This has resulted in building up a clientele that the old theatre manager could not hope to reach. Some cities have had trouble over the class of pictures shown but so far the local managers have given their patrons good clean pictures and there has been little need to talk of censorship.

Have you any idea of how many of you attend the movies in the course of a month. From talking with Messrs. Scott, Luttrell and Johnson it is estimated that between fifty and sixty thousand people visit the movies every month. In a year that makes over six hundred thousand. It only costs a nickel or a dime to go. When you add up the nickels and dimes on that many people it makes some money. None of the local managers, however have made enough as yet to retire.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Missionary society of Grace church will meet today at the church. Topic, “Service with enthusiasm”. Leader, Mrs. J. B. Wharton. There will be an election of officers. A full attendance is desired.

OBITUARY.

Owen McCarty, the subject of this sketch, was born on the 12th day of Jan., 1831, in the city of Cork, Ireland, and died at his home in Manchester, Ill. on the 28th day of May, 1915, at seven o’clock, a. m., aged 84 years, 4 months and 16 days.

He came to America when about the age of 15 years, landing in the City of New York, where he stopped for about 5 years, during this period he was in the employ of Peter Henderson, the florist.

After this period he came west, coming down the Ohio river, thence up the Mississippi to St. Louis, then to Hannibal, Mo. and after this drifting to Winchester in perhaps the year 1852. While here he was in the employ of Isaac and James Coultas and Major Young on the farm, covering a period of about 6 years, after this he came to the community north of Manchester, working on the farm for Robert McCracken, covering a period of about four years. At this date occurred his wedding to Malinda Arendell on the 19th day of March, 1862. The wedding occurred at the Arendell home, west of town, the marriage being performed by the late A. H. Heaton, who was then a justice of the peace.

After the marriage they went at once to housekeeping on what is known as the Whitehead place, north of town. They lived here about two years, after which they moved to the old home place, where Mike now lives. This was in about the year 1864, and was their home until the year 1903 when he and his wife left the farm, coming to town where he has since made his home, and where his wife preceded him in death on the 10th day of December, 1910.

To the above union were born six children, viz: John O., Thomas E., Robert A., James M., Margaret E., and Mrs. Edward O’Donnell, all of whom survive him, except Margaret E. who died when she was about 2 1-2 years of age. There are fourteen grand-children and five great-grand-children and a host of friends to mourn his death.

During a meeting at West Union Baptist church by the Rev. N. M. Antrobus, on March 20th, 1903, he was happily converted and baptized in the faith of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Rev. Antrobus, in speaking of his conversion says that it was wonderfully bright and clear.

In his death, Manchester has lost one of its most unique characters. He with his wife, journeyed along life’s pathway over a period of almost fifty years, partaking together of its pleasures and sorrows, of its days of discouragement and adversity, then of its days of encouragement and prosperity. They together saw the country change from a barren wilderness to one of order and thrift. They were plain, honest and industrious people, and by their labor and unusual close attention to life’s duties gained for themselves quite a large share of this world’s treasure.

Since his wife died he has been sad and often lonely, and as the burden of his years increased upon him, his health gradually failed and he was more than willing that the end should come.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist church at 2:30 p. m. on Sunday, May 30th, the Rev. W. S. Clark presiding. A chorus of several voices sang. The flowers were cared for by the grand-children. Interment was made in the new cemetery in Manchester. A coverlet was made for the grave of the smiling vine and white rosebuds, intermingled with carnations. Many other floral tributes made the mound beautiful.

What’s In Your Oil Can?

MAYBE your engine’s sluggish—doesn’t deliver the power it should—gets hot—smokes—and acts up in general.

Did it ever occur to you that it may be the oil you’re using?

Any piece of machinery will develop its highest efficiency only when properly lubricated. There’s something more to it than simply “greasing her up.”

Mother’s Friend Before Baby Arrives

During several weeks of expectancy there is a splendid external embrocation in our “Mother’s Friend” in which thousands of women have the most unbounded confidence. They have used it and know. They tell of its wonderful influence to ease the abdominal muscles and how they avoided those dreaded stretching pains that are so much talked about. This safe external application is gently used over the skin to render it amenable to the natural stretching which it undergoes. The myriad of nerve threads just beneath the skin is thus relieved of unnecessary pain-producing causes and great physical relief is the result as expressed by a host of happy mothers who write from personal experience.

It is a subject that all women should be familiar with as “Mother’s Friend” has been in use many years, has been given the most severe tests under most all trying conditions and is recommended by women who to-day are grandmothers and who in their earlier years learned to rely upon this splendid aid to woman.

“Mother’s Friend” is declared by a multitude of women to be just what expectant motherhood requires.

You can obtain “Mother’s Friend” at almost any drug store. Get a bottle to-day and then write for our little book so useful to expectant mothers.

Address: Bradford-Regulator Co., 512 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

What is said herein of “Mother’s Friend” is but a repetition of the thoughts expressed by thousands of happy mothers who have successfully used this splendid external application.

J. O. KING BEGAN IMPORTANT

CITY IMPROVEMENTS

Established the Gas Works and His Zeal Made the Water Works a Possibility.

The people of Jacksonville and vicinity are under many obligations to Ensley Moore for his very excellent historical sketches which he is so well able to prepare, better, probably, than any other person in the city. His article on the Kings was very good. In 1864 there resided in this place seven distinct families of that name and no two related and of one of them, Joseph O. King, I want to add a few facts not contained in Mr. Moore's article.

Mr. King was an essentially self made man. His father died when the son was yet small and a widowed mother could do but little for her children but that little was done well and nature did much too for Mr. King's abilities were versatile and marvelous.

As a business man he was a success but his talents had other tests. When the gas works were first constructed they were little better than a pasteboard job, flimsy and well night worthless. The city needed gas works and so Mr. King bought the proper books, took on John McDonald, the two, with men hired for the work, rebuilt the whole system, paid for the work from the receipts and kept the works going all the time. This was a wonderful feat.

The last piece to be replaced was the old holder in about 1899. Another monument to Mr. King is the system of waterworks in this city. He and he alone, was absolutely the father of the enterprise. He first secured plans and specifications and while the men from Philadelphia, Delly & Fowler, were here putting in the new holder he had them make a bid on the complete waterworks system and their figure was $187,000. I helped Prof. Crampden run the first survey from the site of the pumping works to reservoir hill. Another assistant was Robert White, now of Knox City, Mo., and one of the most brilliant students that ever graduated from Illinois college.

The contest that was required to secure the waterworks now seems almost like a dream. Mr. King was abused, condemned and absolutely reviled for his zeal in the matter. Four men mainly carried the first election, Mr. King, David Smith, Dr. George Bibb and myself. The opposition to the enterprise was so strong that the will of the people as expressed at the polls was set aside three successive times by the city council but still Mr. King persevered and the friends of the enterprise with him.

At one time a certain alderman gave the casting vote to postpone the construction of the works and quite a large company went to his home and surrounded him and I was near by but not participating. It actually seemed as if a kind of Providence kept back extensive fires till the works were finally completed.

It is a bit impressive to see how ideas grow. When Morgan lake was being planned an estimate was made on the possible future daily consumption of the city and the sanguine ones said it might in the far away future amount to 125,000 gallons a day but it would be many, many years before so much would be needed.

When the writer was a comparatively unknown, struggling boy, Mr. King secured him the position of collector and treasurer of the gas works involving the handling of tens of thousands and unsolicited prepared and signed a bond for $10,000. His kindness and fatherly interest will never be forgotten.

EDWARD NEIMEYER DIED SUDDENLY THURSDAY

Man Employed on Allen G. Russel Farm Succumbs to Acute Indigestion.

Edward Neimeyer employed on the farm of Allen G. Russel in Nortonville precinct, died suddenly at 3 o'clock Thursday morning. The circumstances surrounding his death were such that Coroner Wright was summoned. He made the trip to the Russel farm by automobile and held an inquest.

The main evidence in the case was given by Allen G. Russel, Neimeyer's employer. Mr. Russel testified that Neimeyer began feeling badly about a week ago. He quit working for awhile and seemed to be all right. He returned to work and when he retired Wednesday evening he seemed to be in good health. About 3 o'clock Thursday morning Neimeyer called Mr. Russel. He said he believed he was going to die. Mr. Russel called John Ray and then called the doctor. Before the doctor arrived Neimeyer was dead.

The jury was composed of the following: B. F. Fitzsimmons foreman, John Loneragan, George W. Winter, William Russel, J. Harry Woods and J. W. Woods, clerk.

The jury after hearing the evidence returned the following verdict: "We find that Edw. Neimeyer came to his death by an attack of acute indigestion, which would cause heart failure and death."

Neimeyer was about 51 years of age and had been in Nortonville precinct about six years working on various farms. Word has been received from relatives that they would take the remains to Warsaw for interment.

STUDENTS WILL BE GIVEN CHANCE TO MAKE UP WORK AT SCHOOL

Superintendent Collins has made an arrangement whereby students who have failed in some study or who wish to make up work in any department may do so during the summer months. Over 30 students have already enrolled.

The teachers are to receive a small fee for this service. The superintendent has addressed the following letter to the parents:

We notice that your child did not pass in all subjects for the next grade. The same thing has happened to a number of other pupils in the Jacksonville schools and we have had many requests from the parents for an opportunity for pupils to make up this work.

It is impossible for some of the parents to spare the necessary money to pay private teachers for each child; therefore, after consulting with the Board of Education, we decided that it would be more economical and also better to have the pupils come to school in the morning and have the necessary teachers to supervise the work.

The teachers have decided to charge $1 per week for one subject for each student and $1.50 per week for more than one subject; time, 9 a. m. to 12 m. each day; school to close the last of June. However at the end of the first two weeks, students will be given an opportunity to take examinations in any subject and if they should pass they will be excused; if not, they may continue to review their work for another two weeks, and then take another examination.

We are doing this work because we feel that it is not only costly for parents but very uninteresting and often injurious for the child to take the same work two years.

The superintendent will be in his office during the month of June and will devote the necessary time in looking after this work, without any charges to parents or to the Board of Education.

STUMBORG HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS CLOSED

Little Child is Given Into Custody of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tyler and Will be Legally Adopted.

Clara May Stumborg, the little child who has been the occasion for the recent habeas corpus proceedings in the circuit court was yesterday delivered into the custody of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tyler of Canton and will be formally adopted by them. This action was taken in accordance with the ruling of Judge F. W. Burton, who heard the testimony in the habeas corpus proceeding. He decided that in accordance with the petition of T. J. Priest, executor and trustee under the Stumborg will, that the child should be delivered to him.

Mr. Priest, whose home is in Winchester, was here Thursday for the purpose and Miss Hattie Bobbitt of Chapin brought the little girl here and gave her over to the care of Mr. and Mrs. Tyler in accordance with the court order. It is the understanding that the child will be legally adopted and assume the name of her foster parents, and that Mr. Tyler is to go before the county court of Fulton county and be duly appointed the child's guardian in order that he may care for her property under the jurisdiction of the court. It will be remembered that it was a provision in the will of the child's mother that she should be cared for temporarily by T. J. Priest and placed by him in some Christian home.

It was Mr. Priest's plan to place the child temporarily in the orphan's home at White Hall, but William Stumborg, an uncle of the child, and Miss Hattie Bobbitt, objected to this plan and when Mr. Priest visited Chapin some weeks ago were unwilling to surrender the child to him unless she was to be taken directly to some private home. Out of this incident the habeas corpus proceeding resulted. In court Mr. Stumborg and Miss Bobbitt both stated that they had no intention of refusing to give up the child, but that it seemed to them that it was wholly unnecessary for her to be placed even temporarily in the orphan's home.

From all indications the settlement reached yesterday is satisfactory to all parties concerned, and it seems that the little girl now has a home where she will be carefully nurtured and in accordance with the wishes of her mother.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION NOW BEING PLANNED

Committee Named Yesterday Will Arrange for Proper Observance of the Nation's Birthday—Events on Square and at Nichols Park.

The proper celebration of the Fourth of July may now be regarded as a foregone conclusion as far as Jacksonville is concerned and it is to be a rousing one too, no half-way about it.

Yesterday morning there was a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce rooms with Henry Frisch, W. J. Brady, Clarence Lukeman, Thos. Hopper, Robert Mullenix, T. M. Tomlinson, C. S. Hillierby, Harry Obermeyer, Chas. B. Graff, J. W. Merrigan, F. J. Waddell, W. B. Miser, Basil Genetos, M. T. Cosgriff, John K. Long and the Journal reporter.

Carl Weber, secretary of the chamber of commerce, was called to the chair and the question was discussed at considerable length by all present. It was finally decided to have the attractions on the square and East and West State streets till four p. m., and then adjourn with the band to Nichols park for a baseball game and evening fire works. The events on the square and streets are to consist of band concert in the central park, vaudeville acts in various places, orations, probably balloon ascensions, athletic contests and the like making a very attractive program. Stores will probably be closed at four, all except the ice cream parlors, eating places and cigar stores and all will have an opportunity to go out to the park and enjoy the good things there.

Mr. Weber was placed at the head of the executive committee which is Henry Frisch, Robert Mullenix, J. W. Merrigan, M. T. Cosgriff and W. B. Miser.

These gentlemen appointed a special soliciting committee consisting of Harry Obermeyer, W. J. Brady, G. B. Andre, Clarence Lukeman, J. K. Long, C. S. Hillierby and Robert Mullenix.

Something like $600 to $700 will be needed for the complete celebration and on yesterday afternoon the soliciting committee reported about $350 secured.

The celebration is at once to be advertised well and every effort put forth to make it a grand success. All patriotic citizens, and surely there are no other, are asked to call on any one of the soliciting committee and pay what they are willing to contribute to the nation's birthday without being asked. Let us all make a long pull, a strong pull and a pull all together and make the thing a fine success.

A number went out to the Literary horse show yesterday afternoon and did some good work in the way of advertising.
